About 1 September an important Burmese Communist arrived secretly in Kengtung from Kunming via Ch'eli ( 100-50; 21-58), Fohai ( 100-26; 21-58), and Nanchiao (100-11; 22-07) and in early September conferred with other Burmese Communist leaders at Tung Pai (東牌) in the Kengtung area. He said he obtained from high-ranking Chinese Communist officials in Yunnan information that an international communist army (sic) is to coordinate with Chinese Communist troops in Yunnan in an attack on North Burma when war breaks out in Southeast Asia.
